- (2) The positions listed in rules 12(1)(a) - (c) are considered the Executive of the Committee.
- (3) The Committee may invite a person to attend and contribute to one or more Committee Meetings if the Committee reasonably believes the person's attendance will assist in achieving the Committee's Objectives. An invitation may be extended for a single meeting, for a specified set of meetings, or for ongoing attendance, but the invitation does not confer membership to the Committee and must expire no later than the end of that Guild Year
- (4) An invited person may participate in discussions at the discretion of the Chair but is not entitled to vote at the meeting. Attendance under an invitation does not confer any ongoing rights, continuing attendance entitlements, or membership, and any invitation must end at the close of that Guild Year unless renewed.
- (5) The Department may consist of any Special Officers identified in Schedule 2 who may be invited to attend Committee Meetings, but do not form part of the Committee. The Committee is responsible for appointing any Special Officers of the Department.

- (6) A person is eligible for a position as a Committee Member or a Special Officer if they are a Department Member.
- (7) The term of the Committee Members and Special Officers shall expire at the end of the last day of the Guild Year of the year in which they are appointed.
- (8) The powers and responsibilities of the Committee Members are set out in Schedule 1.
- (9) The powers and responsibilities of the Special Officers are set out in Schedule 1.

13 Appointment of Head of Department

- (1) An announcement calling for applicants will be published on the Department's social media, the Guild's website and the Guild's newsletter.
 - (a) The announcement will include the date and time of the closure of the application period.
 - (b) The application period will be open for no less than 10 University working days.
- (2) Applicants for the position must apply via an application form attaching a Curriculum Vitae and cover letter.
- (3) An interview panel will form consisting of the Guild President, the Guild Volunteering Manager, the Head of Guild Human Resources Department or their nominee and the outgoing Head of Department.
- (4) Interviews will be conducted in October by the panel and the recommendation of the chosen individual (by means of a majority vote by the panel) will be presented to Guild Council in the October Guild Council meeting.
- (5) If Guild Council chose to not accept the panel's nominee, then the panel will be instructed to repeat the process.
- (6) The term of office will commence from the 1st of December and will continue until the conclusion of the Guild year.
- (7) Only Department Members are eligible to nominate for the Head of the Department.

14 Appointment of Committee Members

- (1) Other than in respect of the Head of Department who is elected during the Online Department Elections, the Department's Committee Members will be appointed by the new Head of Department.
- (2) Only Department Members are eligible to nominate for a position as a Committee Member.
- (3) The notice for nominations will be published at the discretion of the Head of Department, so long as the notice is published before March of the Guild Year

- (4) The notice for nominations should be made accessible by relevant social media channels and the Guild website.
- (5) Candidates for positions on the Committee must submit a written nomination to the Head of Department within 14 University Working Days after the notice for nominations has been published.
- (6) If one or more Committee positions remain vacant after the close of nominations the Head of Department may publish a further notice calling for nominations for those vacant positions at any time during the Guild Year.
- (7) The newly elected Head of Department will organise interviews as part of the appointment process.
- (8) The Head of Department must assemble an interview panel of their choosing to decide the person(s) who are to be appointed to the Committee.
- (9) A Committee Member holds office until the conclusion of the relevant Guild Year in which they are appointed.

15 Head of Department vacancies

- (1) Head of Department will be vacated if the holder of that position:
 - (a) resigns by notice in writing to the Guild General Secretary;
 - (b) no longer meets the criteria to be a Department Member;
 - (c) has their Membership rights suspended under rule 8; or
 - (d) is absent for more than three Committee Meetings in the same Guild Year, of which they have received notice, without a reasonable reason which is accepted by the Committee.
- (2) The replacement Head of Department will be appointed by Guild Council under the recommendation of the Governance Committee with an eligible Department Member.
 - (a) The Governance Committee must consult with the Department Committee regarding eligible candidates.
- (3) Within 14 days of ceasing to be the Head of Department, the outgoing Head of Department must transfer all relevant documents, records and assets of the Department in their possession, custody or control (if any) to the incoming Head of Department or other Committee Member nominated and authorised by the Committee.

16 Committee vacancies

- (1) The position of any Committee Member will be vacated if the holder of that position:
 - (a) resigns by notice in writing to the Committee;

- (b) no longer meets the criteria to be a Department Member;
 - (c) has their Membership rights suspended under rule 8; or
 - (d) is absent for more than three Committee Meetings in the same Guild Year, of which he or she has received notice, without a reasonable reason which is accepted by the Volunteering Manager.
- (2) The Committee may act despite a vacancy occurring in any position on the Committee excluding the case where the Head of Department is vacant.
 - (3) The Committee may fill a position that has become vacant under this rule 16 in accordance with the appointment process in rule 14. Any person who fills a vacancy in these circumstances holds office until the conclusion of the relevant Guild Year in which they are appointed.
 - (4) Within 14 days of ceasing to be a Committee Member, the outgoing Committee Member must transfer all relevant documents, records and assets of the Department in their possession, custody or control (if any) to the incoming Head of Department or Volunteering Manager, or other Committee Member nominated and authorised by the Committee.

17 Subcommittees

- (1) The Committee may establish Subcommittees to advise the Department on any matter relating to the Department.
- (2) Unless inconsistent with these Rules, the Committee may:
 - (a) appoint and remove Subcommittee members, or make provision for the appointment and removal of Subcommittee members;
 - (b) specify that the Subcommittee consists of a single person or a number of persons; and
 - (c) determine the functions of any Subcommittee.
- (3) If the Committee establishes a Subcommittee for a particular matter, then the Committee must obtain the opinion of that Subcommittee before the Committee makes any decision on that matter.
- (4) The opinion or decisions of a Subcommittee are recommendations only and do not bind the Committee in any way.
- (5) The Committee may make and amend rules for each Subcommittee.

Chapter 4 – Meetings

18 Committee Meetings

- (1) The Committee will meet together to conduct the Department's business as often as the Head of Department, or in the Head of Department's absence, the Deputy-Head of Department determines, provided that the Committee meets at least six times in a Guild Year.
- (2) Subject to these Rules, the Committee Members present at a Committee Meeting must determine the procedure and order of business to be followed at the Committee Meeting. The Guild Standing Orders shall be used when the Committee cannot reach a conclusion or by a majority vote of Committee Members present and voting.
- (3) The Committee may hold a Committee Meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Committee Members and any invitees who are entitled to be heard at a Committee Meeting a reasonable opportunity to participate.
- (4) The Secretary or any other person nominated and authorised by the Head of Department is responsible for providing notice of Committee Meetings. All Committee Members must be given not less than three days' notice of every Committee Meeting, except where all of the Committee Members unanimously consent to shorter notice being given.
- (5) A quorum of a Committee Meeting is a majority of Committee Members. If a quorum is not obtained within 30 minutes of the time appointed for the Committee Meeting, the Committee Meeting will lapse.
- (6) At every Committee Meeting the Head of Department, or in the Head of Department's absence the Deputy-Head of Department, will preside as chairperson of the Committee Meeting.
- (7) In the absence of both the Head of Department and the Deputy-Head of Department, the remaining Committee Members must elect a Committee Member to preside as chairperson.
- (8) Every Committee Member present at a Committee Meeting has one vote. Any resolution put forward at a Committee Meeting must be passed by a majority of the Committee Members present and entitled to vote at the Committee Meeting.
- (9) The Committee may pass a circular resolution without a Committee Meeting being held. A circular resolution is passed if a majority of the Committee Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or otherwise agree to the resolution as follows:
 - (a) Each Committee Member may sign:
 - (i) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution; or

- (ii) separate copies of that document, provided that the wording of the resolution is the same in each copy.
 - (b) The Department may send a circular resolution by electronic means to the Committee Members, and the Committee Members may agree to the resolution by sending an electronic reply to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.
- (10) Where it is not explicitly set out in these Rules; or confusion arises during a meeting; or there is an inconsistency pertaining to these Rules, then the Standing Orders of the Guild are to be used to rectify these issues.
- (11) The standing invitees to the Committee Meetings are as follows:
- (a) Guild Volunteering Manager
 - (b) Volunteering Officer(s)

19 Validity of act of the Committee

All acts done at any Committee Meeting or by the Committee will, despite the fact that it is subsequently discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Committee Member or that any Committee Member was disqualified, be valid as if the defect did not in fact exist or the Committee Member was not disqualified, as the case may be.

20 Minutes of meetings

- (1) The Secretary must cause proper minutes of all proceedings of every Committee Meeting to be signed and recorded within 30 days after the closing of the meeting. The minutes must contain:
 - (a) the full names of all Committee Members or standing invitees present (as applicable); and
 - (b) an outline of what was discussed; and
 - (c) all appointments reported to have been made; and
 - (d) all resolutions made or passed by the meeting.
- (2) If the Secretary is not present at the meeting, the Committee must nominate and authorise a person to be responsible for taking minutes for that particular meeting.
- (3) The minutes must be accepted in the subsequent Committee Meeting.
- (4) Once the minutes have been accepted, they must be stored in the Department's Microsoft Teams.
- (5) Committee Meeting minutes must be made available to the Guild's Administration upon request.

Chapter 5 – Miscellaneous

21 Funding

- (1) Funding of the Department is to be determined by Guild Council in accordance with the Student General Regulations.
- (2) The Department will not have or operate an external bank account separate from the Guild.
- (3) The Department must comply with all Guild Finance Department financial reporting, policies, procedures and audit requirements.

22 Notices

- (1) A notice under these Rules is deemed to be properly served if the notice is addressed and delivered to the Department Member as per the details contained in the Register of Members.
- (2) The non-receipt of, or the omission to send to any Department Member or Committee Member, any notice or other document required to be sent under these Rules does not invalidate a Committee Meeting.
- (3) A notice may be served on the Department by either email, post or personal delivery to the Secretary or Head of Department.
