- 7. MOTIONS ON NOTICE

7.1 The 2023 Ordinary General Council Meeting:

- 7.1.1 Urges students to vote "Yes" in the upcoming referendum on the Voice to Parliament.
- 7.1.2 Recognises that the 'No' campaign is led by individuals, organisations and politicians who have fanned the flames of racism, both implicitly and explicitly, as part of their conservative agenda.
- 7.1.3 Condemns the racism of the leading forces of the No campaign.
- 7.1.4 Recognizes that a 'Yes' vote is not enough, and that to close the gap, significant increases in Commonwealth funding to welfare, education and public housing will be vital, as well as the implementation of all recommendations from the 1991 Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody.
- 7.1.5 Condemns the role of the Labor government in maintaining Indigenous oppression in Australia, as seen through its operation of Banksia Hill Detention Centre in WA and its legalization of the indefinite detention of children in police watch houses in QLD.
